Young Carer Policy

Person Responsible:	Executive Headteacher / Welfare Leaders
Date Adopted:	Autumn Term 2023
Date of last review:	Autumn Term 2024
Date of next review:	Autumn Term 2025

This policy functions as a practice guide and will therefore be reviewed whenever issues arise which generate new ways to articulate our approach, and otherwise annually.

This policy is based on legislation and advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on:

- The Equality Act 2010
- Keeping Children Safe in Education
- Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice
- The Children and Families Act 2014 and the Care Act 2014

Young Carer Definition:

A young carer is defined in section 96 of the Children and Families Act 2014 as: 'A person under 18 who provides or intends to provide care for another person of any age. That can be a parent or sibling, grandparent or friend. It can include help for physical or mental illness, frailty in old age, a disability or because of substance misuse.'

A 'young carer' is a young person who provides care to a member of the family or a friend who has one, or a combination, of the following conditions:

- a physical or learning disability.
- a sensory impairment
- a chronic condition
- a terminal illness
- a mental health problem or illness
- a drug or alcohol addiction

By 'care' we mean, taking on a role that would usually be expected of an adult in the household:

- Domestic tasks (e.g. regular/daily, cooking, cleaning, shopping)
- Personal care (e.g. helping with mobility, washing, dressing, giving medicine)
- Emotional support and supervision (e.g. watching over someone, providing company and a 'listening ear')
- Sibling care: Looking after an ill or disabled sibling (or a non-disabled sibling where an ill or disabled parent/carer is unable to provide this care)
- Financial management: (e.g. helping with budgeting, paying bills)
- Self-care: Looking after themselves, where an ill or disabled parent/carer is unable to provide this care
- Communication support (e.g. interpreting, answering phone or door)

Policy Aims:

Caring responsibilities can raise a number of barriers to learning for many young people. These barriers can manifest whilst a pupil is in infant school, and can persist into adulthood, restricting opportunities to access further and higher education, and employment.

Many young carers turn up for school late or miss whole days for a number of reasons related to their home circumstances: they are staying home to be close to the person they look after; they are experiencing stress-related illness; they have transportation difficulties; or there is an established pattern of problems at school. Some also miss out on school trips and clubs. Problems with schoolwork can result from emotional stress or physical fatigue, leading to lack of concentration and inability to process information. Lack of time to complete homework or revise because of their caring responsibilities is also a common difficulty.

Some young carers have problems interacting with school staff and their fellow pupils. How they deal with stress varies widely – some may be withdrawn, and some may be disruptive. Some young carers challenge the authority of staff (a sign that they may be struggling with changing between their adult role at home and being a child again at school).

Some parents/carers with disabilities and health problems have difficulties in attending parent evenings or review meetings, or in reading standard letters and reports from the school, which reduces their positive involvement in their child's education.

At The Hermitage Schools, we believe that all young people have the right to an education and should be treated equally. If a young person looks after someone, we know that they may need additional support to help them get the most out of their education, and we aim to meet their needs with respect.

Our Schools:

- Are sensitive towards young carers' needs, and aim to show discretion. We respect pupils' privacy and will only share information about their circumstances with people who need to know, in order to provide help and to ensure safety. Pupils and parents/carers are consulted before information is shared, in line with our GDPR policy.
- Expect all pupils to arrive at school on time and attend school every day.
- Office staff and the senior leadership Team (SLT) monitor attendance. In exceptional circumstances absence may be authorised by the Executive Headteacher, should an emergency situation arise. Please always speak to us if this occurs.
- Employ a home/school link worker (HSLW) who offers support to Young Carers and their families.
- Have links with local services providing support to families with care needs, including local Young Carer services.
- Provide flexibility on homework, if required. Please speak to us if you require this support.
- Realise young Carers may feel tired, worried and in some cases isolated from other children who enjoy and experience a variety of social activities.
- Provide a support group for young carers to meet together regularly and provide access to HSLW, Inclusion Leader/SENCo and ELSA.
- Provide individual listening support for young carers e.g. HSLW, Inclusion Leader/SENCo and ELSA all known to the young carers, who they know they can approach. (A Worry Box is also available in each classroom)
- Provide assistance for disabled parents/carers in getting their children to school in exceptional circumstances.
- Assist parents/carers with disabilities and health problems in accessing parents' evenings, school events, etc in a way that meets their needs.
- Where required, assist eligible young carers in their education, including accessing curriculum-based trips, enabling them to have equal access to education and enrichment experiences.
- Ensures young carer's attainment and progress is monitored through pupil progress meetings and appropriate interventions implemented where required.
- Consider alternatives if pupils are unable to attend after-school activities (e.g. clubs) due to their caring role. Please speak to us if this is an issue.
